The intern will function in a supporting role for the 4-H Educator in our office. Regarding Job Skills and Careers, the intern will help create promotional materials for our 4-H in the Classroom and 4-H Manufacturing FUNdamentals workforce development program. They will collaborate with the Shelby County Workforce Partnership group to create an interactive booth at fair for kids to engage in activities at during Kid's Day (for example, "Clover's Manufacturing FUNspace"). Activities will include SpheroBots, hydraulic T-Bots, Lego Robotics, plastic injection molding, 3-D printing and more. The intern will also help with promoting the booth and working with volunteers to staff it.

Regarding Thriving Across the Lifespan, the intern will assist with final 4-H Camp planning and coordination (and hopefully attend camp), as well as coordinate and execute a Cloverbud Day Camp for the summer (including lesson plans). They will help with our Celebrate Junior Fair Week events and provide leadership to our Junior Fair Board members and Camp Counselors. All of these activities focus on the various ages and stages of 4-H youth and teach subjects ranging from leadership to project areas.

6. List a minimum of six activities in which the intern will participate. These activities and meetings should be within the impact areas, across program areas and/or with the community or other professionals.

- 4-H Camp
- Cloverbud Day Camp
- Celebrate Junior Fair Week
- PAS Show
- Rabbit Tattooing
- Senior Fair Board meetings
- Junior Fair Board meetings
- Shelby Co. Junior Fair (pre-fair and fair week)

7. Briefly describe the length of experience of the educator who will mentor the intern and/or the experience of the supervising educator/county team members. Our goal is to ensure the intern has a meaningful educational experience in which the intern learns the value and contribution of the Extension system and the impacts we produce for our clientele.

Cassaundra Dietrich will be both the mentor and the supervisor to the intern. Her two-year anniversary as an Extension Educator is March 7, 2019. She has worked for Ohio State for 5 years, with four of those years being in CFAES.
