OEAA Appreciation Awards

Throughout Ohio we are fortunate to have individuals who graciously give of their time and talents to support our Extension educational efforts. The Ohio Extension Agents Association acknowledges and appreciates these efforts and today wishes to recognize four individuals for their outstanding leadership. These individuals have been nominated by the Extension staff in their county and were selected based on their contributions to their community, county and state.

Joe Bodnar, Ashtabula County

Mr. Bodnar began his contributions to Extension in Lake County as a 4-H Club Advisor with his wife Jayne. When they moved to Ashtabula County in 1988, his experiences with Extension continued to grow. Along with his efforts as a 4-H volunteer leader, Joe has been actively involved in various leadership roles in the Ashtabula County Extension Advisory Committee, 4-H Committee, County 4-H Foundation and Market Animal Committee, to name a few. He has actively participated, on Extension's behalf, in county budget hearings, with legislative visits and was a valued helper when County Commissioner's Day was hosted in the county. Joe was instrumental in the establishment of the Ashtabula County Cattlemen's Association and the Northern Classic Steer and Heifer Show that have resulted in increased educational opportunities for commercial cattlemen and youth Exhibitors. His leadership has also extended to the County Agricultural Scholarship Fund Committee, the County Agricultural Society and the Ohio Cattlemen's Association.

Sarah James, Butler County

Mrs. James has a 32 year history of giving to the Butler County Extension program and to her community. Not only has she been an active 4-H volunteer leader, she has also provided leadership to the county 4-H, Extension Advisory and Junior Fair Livestock Committees.

Sarah's efforts were vital to the establishment of county 4-H and Extension Endowment Funds and she created the Dana Robert James 4-H Advisor Award to recognize outstanding volunteers with five or more years of service. Outside of Extension she is actively involved in her church, Farm Bureau, "Ag in the Classroom" presentations, local government and the Hamilton-Fairfield AARP Board. Sarah promotes 4-H and Extension at every opportunity and has been recognized most recently as a recipient of the Ohio 4-H Meritorious Service Award and was inducted into the Ohio 4-H Hall of Fame in 2002.

Donna Morton, Delaware County

For 36 years, Mrs. Morton has given generously of her time and talents to the Extension program, to the people of Delaware County and to a global audience as well. Donna has been instrumental in establishing a strong county IFYE program and has expanded that role as a regional International County Coordinator team member and state level ICC orientation leader for hosts. As a Master Clothing Educator, she has organized and conducted many educational classes for 4-H members, parents and advisors, as well as the general public, and was instrumental in returning the 4-H Style Review to the county fair. Donna's other leadership roles include the county's 4-H and Extension Advisory Committees and the Ohio 4-H Volunteer Conference Planning Committee. For 30 years, she has offered her professional skills as a registered nurse to volunteer more than 120 days as nurse for the county's Junior 4-H Camps.

Vicky Thomas, Muskingum County

Vicky Thomas has been an invaluable leader and advocate for Extension for the past 28 years. Among her most notable contributions are her being one of two lay persons selected to testify on Extension's behalf at an Ohio Senate Finance Committee Hearing, her membership on the State Extension Advisory Committee, her service as Treasurer of the Ohio Extension Support Committee, Chair of the East District Extension Advisory Committee and a graduate or recruiter for Ohio's LEAD program. On the home front, Vicky and her husband, Bill, served as cooperators for Extension and OARDC's seedless table grape demonstration and shared their knowledge at local, state and national programs. She is an active 4-H volunteer leader and services in leadership roles with the Zanesville Farmers Market, County Farm Bureau, Farm-City Day Planning Committee and her church.

Friend of Community Development

Presenter: Deborah Carney, Extension Agent, Community Development, Hamilton Co.

Recipient: Morris Williams, Interim President and CEO of the Coalitions of Neighborhoods, Cincinnati

The Friend of Community Development is nominated by an OSU Extension Community Development Professional. The award is given in recognition for a person or organization that has supported Community Development Programs.

Morris Williams serves as the Interim President and CEO of the Coalitions of Neighborhoods in Cincinnati, Ohio. He also serves as a member of the Extension Advisory Committee in Hamilton County. The Coalition of neighborhoods has over 30 years experience working with communities, nonprofits, governmental entities, and businesses interested in specialized areas of comprehensive community development and non-biased access to financial resources. The Cincinnati area office is a member organization of the National Community Reinvestment Coalition (NCRC), which is the nation's largest Community Reinvestment Association.

In 2002, the Coalition of Neighborhoods partnered with OSU Extension Hamilton County, to assist our mutual clientele in southwest Ohio in receiving financial literacy training. As a result of this community development collaboration approximately 1,000 area residents received financial training in credit and debt management. Further, the support from the Coalition of Neighborhoods resulted in Hamilton County Extension being awarded $5,000 to continue facilitating financial literacy programming to local area residents.
